

Freud's Life Study Abroad FACT Sheet

10 days (5/23-5/31, 2020) & 2 Pre-trip Class Meetings (Sundays 1-3pm)

Course Credit or Just Travel

Course Credit

Can be taken for course credit (3 credits of theory) at ACAP or BGSP but not required.

GPSA 161 Psychoanalytic Theory II: Fundamentals of Freud

This course follows Freud's life and the development of psychoanalysis. Includes the study of conception of libido theory from its inception through later developments.

Course Credit costs to ACAP and BGSP are in addition to travel costs

Course credit requires attendance at 2 Pre-trip class meetings and turning in a travel log. Pre-class meetings could occur through zoom.

For course credit, participants must attend all schedule activities.

Travel

All transportation for the travel itinerary in Europe is included. Each day at least breakfast and one additional meal is included along with an activity. Most days include a half day on one's own. The trip from Prague to Vienna will be by bus with an overnight stop at Freud's birthplace and the trip from Vienna to London is by plane.

Travel arrangements for airfare to and from Europe are done individually (approximate cost is $1,200 - $1,600). A travel agent will be available to coordinate those who want to fly together as a group.

Students are booked in a double room in each hotel.

iNext travel insurance is required for the trip which covers flight cancellation, theft, lost luggage, dental emergency, medical emergency and evacuation.

Costs

*The cost is based on the number of participants. The more participants, the less it costs per person. If there are less participants, the costs increase. This estimate is based on 20 students and two faculty.
